Life is looking pretty complicated for Belle (Billie Piper). Not only is she struggling with being Belle the London call girl, and Hannah the legal secretary, she now has to contend with a new role as a published author, and aware of her editor's demands for new material she turns to her clients to provide her with the necessary 'experiences' needed for her new book.

Juggling three personas is hard enough but when her sister Jackie arrives to stay out of the blue, following her husband's affair, Belle's life just gets even more complicated. A new character in the form of Duncan, Belle's publisher is introduced and with his intelligent, restrained and mature manner, Belle is immediately attracted. Is this a relationship which can work? After all, he knows all there is to know about her, but does Belle know everything there is to know about Duncan?

Fans of 'Secret Diary Of A Call Girl' series will be delighted to learn that Season's 1-3 will soon be available as a DVD box set, courtesy of Warner Home Video.
